Lesson for January 6 OUR HEAVENLY FATHER

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 6:24-34.
GOLDEN TEXT—Like as the Lord pitcheth his children, so the Lord pitcheth them that fear Him.
PRIMER TOPIC—Our Heavenly Father.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—That the Heavenly Father alone is God.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Fatherhood of God.

Half of the lessons for the year 1929 are of a typical character. The aim of the committee seems to have been to place before the Sunday-school pupils some of the great doctrine of God's Word, as well as teachings on practical life.

1. Who is Our Heavenly Father? (Genesis 1:1, 27.)
He is the Almighty God who created the universe. God was before all things. "Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God." The universe came into being by the will and act of the personal being called God. Man himself is a creature of God. He was created in the image and likeness of God. God is the infinite and perfect spirit in whom we live and move and have our being. He is omnipotent, omniscient and omnipresent. He was not only before all things, but the cause of all things.

2. What the Father Does.
This love was expressed by sending His only begotten Son into the world that we might live through Him. He not only loves the redeemed, but He loves the world (John 3:16). In the very essence of His being God is love (1 John 4:8).

3. He redeemed us (1 John 4:9).
He gave His only begotten Son that we might live through Him. The preserving mercy of God embraces the following gracious benefits:

(1) He forgives all our iniquities (v. 10). This He does so that we may be able to keep His commandments. He made for sin in the atonement wrought out by Jesus Christ.

(2) He heareth all our prayers (v. 11). This He does so that we may be able to keep His commandments. He made for sin in the atonement wrought out by Jesus Christ.

(3) He cleanseth us from all unrighteousness (v. 12). This He does so that we may be able to keep His commandments. He made for sin in the atonement wrought out by Jesus Christ.

(4) He keepeth us from temptation (v. 13). This He does so that we may be able to keep His commandments. He made for sin in the atonement wrought out by Jesus Christ.

(5) He delivereth us from temptation (v. 14). This He does so that we may be able to keep His commandments. He made for sin in the atonement wrought out by Jesus Christ.

(6) He delivereth us from temptation (v. 15). This He does so that we may be able to keep His commandments. He made for sin in the atonement wrought out by Jesus Christ.

(7) He delivereth us from temptation (v. 16). This He does so that we may be able to keep His commandments. He made for sin in the atonement wrought out by Jesus Christ.

(8) He delivereth us from temptation (v. 17). This He does so that we may be able to keep His commandments. He made for sin in the atonement wrought out by Jesus Christ.

Sawdust Saving Worth Millions of Dollars
New York.—By making thinner saws, which will save as little as one sixteenth of an inch in the width of cuts made in wood, an annual waste of sawdust amounting to more than $200,000,000 may be saved for the American lumber industry.

This report was made recently to the American Society of Mechanical Engineers by a special research committee on saws and knives.

Efficient standardization of saws, the committee said, might accomplish the saving. The annual waste in saw logs was estimated at $30,000,000 with an additional sawdust waste of $33,000,000 in manufacture of logs into boards. A "doubtful" saving of $4,000,000 in power with thinner saws was estimated, bringing the total of value of sawdust waste that might be avoided to $77,000,000.
